

2024 Blue Grass Trust Preservation Awards

Nomination Packet

Each year, the Blue Grass Trust for Historic Preservation hosts our Preservation Awards, recognizing the positive, far-reaching impact that preservation plays in Central Kentucky and honoring the individuals and organizations that make preservation possible.

The Blue Grass Trust encourages nominations for projects, organizations, and individuals who promote the value of historic preservation within the Central Kentucky region.

The Blue Grass Trust is seeking nominations for the following awards:

Barbara Hulette Award: Given for efforts in the preservation of Central Kentucky's history, heritage, built environment, landscape, archaeological resources, sense of community, or significant endeavors

Clay Lancaster Heritage Education Award: Given to an individual or group for service in researching and disseminating information about the Central Kentucky region

Clyde Reynolds Carpenter Adaptive Reuse Award: Given to an individual or group for outstanding efforts in the rehabilitation and adaptive reuse of a building or buildings within Central Kentucky

Community Preservation Award: Given to a non-governmental organization or individual for service to the preservation movement or to a specific project

Landscape Preservation Award: Given to an individual or group for the preservation, design, stewardship, restoration, or enhancement of a historic cultural landscape in the Bluegrass

Lucy Graves Advocacy Award: Given to an individual or group that has exhibited advocacy leadership in supporting the historic preservation movement in Central Kentucky

Preservation Craftsman Award: Given to a building industry craftsman who has exhibited a strong commitment to quality craftsmanship for historic buildings

Public Service to Preservation Award: Given to a government agency or official for service to preservation movement or to a specific project

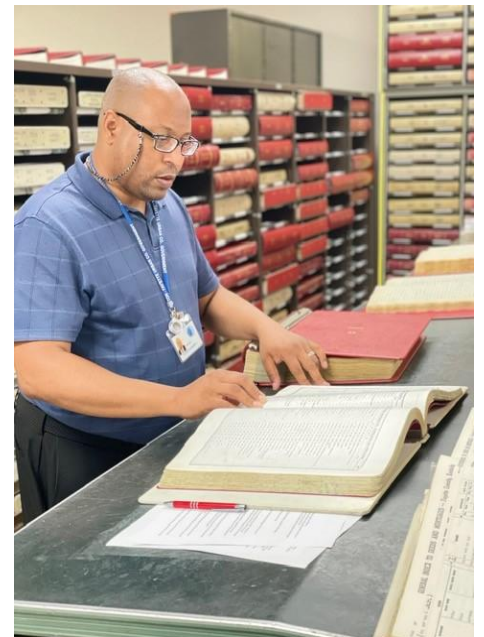

Yvonne Giles Award: Given to an individual, group, or project for contributing to research on African American or other culturally inclusive history, advocacy of the understanding of that history, and education of the community regarding African American or other culturally inclusive history in the Bluegrass
